

Hi,

Hope you are doing well.

I am writing to you on behalf of Microfinance Institutions Network. We would like to inform you that Ms Ratna Vishwanathan has stepped down as the CEO of Microfinance Institutions Network. She has been associated with MFIN for four years now and has led the organisation since past three years.

During her tenure as the CEO, she had successfully undertaken the task of channelizing industry voice and led the efforts in improving industrywide practices. Ratna also made significant contributions in steering the industry in challenging times especially during demonetization through leading dialogues and industry-focused activities w.r.t.all key stakeholders. She has over two decades of experience with the government and development sector and belongs to 1987 batch of the Indian Audit and Accounts Service. Ratna joined MFIN in 2014 and took over the reins as the CEO in 2015.

Going forward, Mr Rakesh Dubey, President, MFIN will be the official spokesperson of MFIN. The change will take effect from 15th January 2018.

We request you to reach out to us for any information or queries in the future.

Regards
